SCHOOL OF MUSIC

A four-day intensive seminar for middle school and high school students ages 11-18, dedicated to the study of the trombone, with an emphasis on performance and pedagogy. Led by and featuring premiere freelance musicians and educators in the area, the Capital Region Summer Trombone Institute will provide students with an educational laboratory to learn, play, and listen. Euphonium and tuba students are also welcome. Teachers who would like to audit the session are welcome. John Keal Music will have a booth with instruments, mouthpieces, and other supplies.
